

K-LOVE serves as a resident in that I can listen to commercial free spiritual music that is safe my child to listen to as well. It helps keep my spirits up and encourages me throughout the day. It is a great promoter for the community to have such a positive message being spread around the town. The public needs this service to help people realize what is important in their besides their wordly possessions.